Vignobles Investissement partner of " International Grenache Symposium "

June 5th – 6th, 2010

La Verrière, Crestet - Rhone Valley - France

The first international symposium dedicated to Grenache took place on June 5th – 6th, 2010 at La Verrière (Domaine Chêne Bleu), a vineyard estate located at Le Crestet, near Avignon in the Rhône Valley, at the heart of the Dentelles de Montmirail.

It met for the first time around the table the best Grenache producers in the world (Australia, California, Spain, etc.) and brought together wine trade professionals from France and around the world and top wine writers/journalists such as renowned Steven Spurrier and Michel Bettane. Very constructive workshops and tastings of quality have put the Grenache in the spotlight ! ...
